

Spring is almost here . . .

and that means it's time for Chesterfield's

4th ANNUAL YARD SALE OF THE CAROLINAS!

Located right in the heart of the Carolinas, we want to share with everyone the best that the Carolinas have to offer.

Yard Sale of the Carolinas will be held Saturday, May 1, 2010 on Main Street in historic downtown Chesterfield, SC – just off SC Highway 9. There will be handmade local crafts, music and entertainment all day long, local artisans, activities, household goods, books, food, antiques, games, pony rides, a huge children's play area, games, crazy prizes and lots of fun!

Here in the Carolinas everything we do is above and beyond, so it makes perfect sense that our Yard Sale of the Carolinas is MORE than a yard sale! Everyone is invited to join in this annual event that showcases the best local crafts, goods, foods and talents of our beautiful region. We expect the 2009 Yard Sale of the Carolinas to be the best yet!

Vendor applications are available at our event blog:

www.yardsaleofthecarolinas.blogspot.com or contact teamchesterfield@gmail.com or pick up your application at Chesterfield Town Hall.